There's more than meets the Eye

In this lesson you will learn five ways to persevere through your current situation.

Intro: There is more than meets the eye. Is there anything in this season for me? Don’t settle for an exhausted Christian walk. The answer to your problems in life is found in the pages of the Word. You need to take the limits off and realize that there is more than meets the eye in what you are walking through. There is potential in your current season.

I. Speak By Faith

   A. 1 Kings 18:41 - Rain is coming. You need to speak by faith and see the potential of your current season. Don’t name your future based on your past limitations.

II. Come up Higher

   A. 1 Kings 18:42 - You've got to rise up higher than your current situation. See the expansion and the opportunities all around you. We won't see what God has in store if we don't get in His Word and allow it elevate us higher.

III. Get Down Lower

   A. Isaiah 26:3 - You've got to get down low in your dependence on God. Close your eyes to the things you can see, So you can open your spiritual eyes to the things you cannot see.

IV. Don't Stop Looking Out

   A. 1 Kings 18:43 - God wants to see your perseverance. God wants you to not give up, but to continue in your consistency of faith and discipline to see the breakthrough in your life.

V. Don't Despise Small Beginnings

   A. 1 Kings 18:44 - Great blessings often arise from small beginnings. Showers of plenty from a very small cloud. God directs our steps, trust the step that you're currently in. God will work everything out.

Discussion Questions

1. Have you learned to speak by faith despite your current circumstances?
2. Do you often find yourself humbling yourself before God?
3. Have you become weary in anticipating your breakthrough?
